

WELCOME | JULY 2, 2017

As we approach Independence Day we have so much to be thankful for as Americans. God has been so good to us in providing religious freedom, a prosperous economy, and the ability to choose our destiny. However, freedom brings with it the necessity of responsibility. Above all, free people must be responsible people who understand how important it is to live in such a way that we perpetuate what we have been given. We should vote, live ethically and morally, and most of all we should thank the Lord and live for Him with all our hearts that He may continue to bless our nation.
