

WELCOME | DECEMBER 2, 2018

Today we will spend some time reflecting on the 50 years of ministry that has occurred here at Eastland Baptist Church. In that time a vision became a reality that has touched thousands of lives over the course of five decades. In order for that to continue into the coming years we must continue to have the same vision, be willing to make similar sacrifices, and give the same kind of effort that those who were here before us did. In many ways we are living and enjoying the fruit of other men's labors and my encouragement to us today is for us to invest so a future generation can be blessed by the ministry of Eastland Baptist Church in the future.
