

WELCOME | JUNE 24, 2018

Many of our young people will leave for camp tonight after the service and I would like to ask you to pray with me that the Lord might speak to their hearts in a great way. Often getting away from our normal routine helps us to think and see things differently. We are more likely to hear God's voice when we take time to do so; camp affords our youth this opportunity. They will be preached to three times a day and have a quiet time to reflect on the things they have heard.

If we would be faithful to pray for our youth during this week-long opportunity, I believe many will make decisions that will help them better serve the Lord in the future. Listening to God's Word and prayer are two of the most important ways we can give ourselves and our children the best chance to grow.
